

Brief Profile of Mr.Praveen Kumar

Mr. Praveen Kumar is currently Senior Manager– Trims Engineering, Mahindra & Mahindra. He is B-tech in Mechanical engineering & master's in Marketing Management. Currently he also pursuing his MS in Materials and Metallurgy from IIT, Madras, India.

He had 16 years of experience in Automobile & Aerospace product development, right from Tier1 experience to OEM project execution.

He had been associated with Mahindra since more than a decade and had been a key player in delivering XYLO, GENIO, QUANTO & TUV300. He had also been part of various Rise Awards and Paper presentation along with several patents in his name & author for two international paper and several inhouse papers. He is also an author for Digital Learning Modules on Rapid prototyping methods, Basics of Plastic costing and is a certified Green Belt DFSS. He is an evangelist in composites and strives to work on sustainable and light weight technology.

He is also associated with SAEBAHA as a judge from 2016 onwards. He had won the best Paper award at SAEADMMS 2017. He is also a part of FISITA 2018 Technical Committee. He had also been a mentor and guide for M&M GET batch from 2015 onwards.

Apart from his professional project he is also active in various environmental cause like - Save the turtle, Man-made forests initiatives and social work cause. He also has a core interest in spirituality and is associated with Bihar School of Yoga and dikshit from Padma Bhushan awarded Swami Niranjanananda Saraswati. He is associated with Sivananda Saraswathi Sevashram towards serving orphanage and helping old age.

Besides all this he loves jogging and meditation during his free time. He is a half marathon Runner for society cause and always believes in pay back to society.