

Yogesh Nagendiran earned his Bachelor degree in automobile from Hindustan college of Engineering, in the year 2010.

He is associated with Renault Nissan Technology & Business centre India for past 8 years and currently having the responsibility as Project Leader for after-sales diagnostics.

His areas of expertise are Vehicle Diagnostics for Chassis & Electrical and electronic control systems.

He is also an active SAEINDIA member from 2007 as technical scrutinier for Baja & Supra events, Organising committee member of various student activities & International conferences like APAC 16, SIMCOMVEC, ITEC etc.,

He was also the nominated management committee member of SAEISS (SAEINDIA Southern Section) for 2 terms from 2012 to 2016 and organised various COLT programme for students & SAE Trek programmes for professional members.

He is currently organising committee co-ordinator of FISITA 2018 World congress to be held in India, Chennai in the month of October 2018.